Sports Bursaries 2017

CLOSING DATE: 26th March 2017

The Sport Bursary program assists a number of athletes across various sports, contributing to costs associated with equipment and competition.

With the introduction of the Student Athlete Development Program other service support will be provided to bursary recipients. This will include Student Athlete workshops, timetable and exam deferral support and discounted gym membership.

You may nominate for more than one category and if progressed to Stage 2, may be required to make yourself available for an interview with the Selection Panel.

For 2017, the following Bursaries will be on offer through our existing partnerships.

- 1) Convocation Bursaries (Male and Female) – The Convocation Bursary is the highest ranking award in the program and is awarded to the most outstanding elite male and female athletes amongst the nominees. The Bursary is open to all current UWA students, including non-club members. The Bursary is taken from previous athlete scholarship models and aims to keep in place a long standing collaboration between the Convocation Council, the University and UWA Sport. An even $1000 is contributed by all three parties, making up a total bursary amount of $3000.
- 2) WM Nunn Bursary – Open to all current first year UWA students, including non-club members. The Bursary is awarded in recognition of UWA Student Athlete Wally Marshall Nunn. Nunn won four full blue awards across the sports of athletics, rugby, swimming and rowing. To this date no other student athlete has received four full blues across differing sports while representing the University of Western Australia. Total bursary sum is $1500.
- 3) Indigenous Athlete Bursary – Open to all current Indigenous students at UWA. The Indigenous athlete bursary was added in the 2016 pilot program to recognise the achievements of Indigenous student athletes within UWA. Total bursary amount is $1000. Requires a minimum of 5 applicants for bursary to be awarded.
- 4) Club Leadership Bursary – This bursary may be awarded to those UWA Students who display the key attributes that positions themselves as leaders in their given UWA affiliated sports club. Bursary sum is $1000 per male and female.
- 5) Club Athlete Bursaries – Club Bursaries are open to all current and active members of UWA affiliated Sports Clubs. UWA Sport Clubs will be offered the opportunity to contribute an unrestricted sum per athlete with UWA Sport matching that sum up to the amount of $500. Total Bursary sums can vary between $300 and $1000, depending on club contribution. Smaller clubs may be inclined to contribute a smaller amount.
